adjective to share that I'll be verb-ing as a job-title at company name in the industry space!

Over the past number months, I've been working on plural noun that strengthened my skills in skill, and I'm excited to bring that experience into this next chapter.

Huge thanks to my adjective type of people/team for supporting me along the way. I'm especially grateful for the opportunity to action verb, grow, and create real buzzword noun.
